tadTalks Student Grant Program

Graduate Learning Support (GLS) in the Office of Graduate Studies in collaboration with Office of Research Support is pleased to announce the opening of applications for the newly launched tadTalks Student Grant Program.

About the Program:
The tadTalks Student Grant Program is designed to (1) support high-caliber graduate research, (2) sharpen the research skills of students awarded into the program, and (3) enhance the graduate research experience at Qatar University. Students awarded into the program enjoy advanced research skills training with renowned international universities and research entities as well as training for and access to other cutting edge research tools.

Eligibility to Apply:
- Current QU graduate student
- Enrolled in a QU graduate program with a thesis/dissertation track
- Good academic standing
- Students are not eligible to apply in the semester of their graduation

What You Need to Apply:
- Current unofficial Academic Transcript
- Thesis/Dissertation Research Proposal
- Statement of Interest
- CV
- 2X Recommendation Letters
- Qatar ID

How to apply:
1. Click on the hyperlink below
2. Select Option 3 (Graduate Studies Awards)
3. Enter your information
4. Apply For: tadTalks Student Grant Program

Timeline: The application for the tadTalks Student Grant Program will close on April 20, 2023.

Announcement: The Graduate Learning Support will announce the tadTalks Student Grant Program's awardees.