

ADMISSIONS DEPARTMENT

Students Affairs Building (I11)
Qatar University

Predicted International Baccalaureate Grades for Provisional Admission Qatar University will consider International Baccalaureate applicants who are currently in their final year of study and whose final and official IB results will not be available by the application deadline to apply for Provisional Admission based on their predicted IB grades.

A complete list of QU's minimum admission requirements for IB applicants may be found at:

http://www.qu.edu.qa/students/admission/undergraduate/first_year_applicants.php

It is imperative that the predicted grades be as accurate as possible. Applicants receiving Provisional Admission based on predicted grades will need to submit their final and official transcript in order to complete their formal admission to QU. Applicants with official grades that differ significantly from their predicted grades may be required to transfer to a different college or, in the event that they fail to satisfy QU's minimum admission requirements, will have their admission to QU rescinded.
